Creating strong bonds through a range of leading vaccines.

The Nobivac Canine Vaccine range comprises vaccines and services that reflect MSD Animal Health’s long experience and leadership in small animal vaccine development.

A strong research commitment to small animal vaccines ensures that the Nobivac vaccines are of the highest quality, trusted for their efficacy and safety.

The Nobivac range is manufactured locally in Bendigo, Victoria, and is supplied in recyclable packaging.

Nobivac Canine Vaccine range

- DHP
- DHPPi
- KC (Intranasal)
- Bb/Pi
- Puppy Pack
- C5 Pack

References

Nobivac

- Essential protection for essential bonds

Canine Vaccines
Nobivac® Bb/Pi

- Protects against clinical disease and shedding
- Intranasal Nobivac KC
- Compatible for concurrent use with laboratory and field data
- Substantial peer-reviewed published evidence

• Responds to pet owner concerns about
• Consistent with current international (WSAVA)
• Provides a customised approach to vaccination
• 3 years duration of immunity*

3 years duration of immunity*
- Provides an extended approach to vaccination
- Consistent with current international (NSWAN)
- Responsible to pet owner concerns about overvaccination

Substantial peer-reviewed published laboratory and field data

Nobivac® DHPPi

- Registered for use in pregnant bitches
- Annual revaccination

Technical Services

Experienced veterinarians are available to provide technical support for your practice for Intervet/Schering-Plough’s extensive product range.

Services and advice include:
- Vaccination protocols
- Questions regarding label claims
- Monitoring of post-registration product performance
- Product complaint investigations

Call to speak to one of our Technical Services Representatives

1800 033 461